

Each single data point corresponds to the execution of a given scheme for a single specific graph dataset